THE CITY IN BRIEF.

The Huber people received an order from Santillo, Mexico, this morning, for a complete threshing outfit.

The next entertainment to be given by the Church club will be at the home of Miss Rose Fahey, of Silver street, one week from tonight.

Company G gave a skirmish drill on the streets Monday night. There were only a few of the members out at the drill and it was of short duration.

The Marion Advertising company has covered the bill boards of the city with large stands of paper, advertising Syrup of Figs. The paper is some of the finest ever seen in the city.

The next Elks' social will be given one week from Tuesday night. The amusement committee will offer something new this time, which they promise will eclipse the last affair.

Six fine looking fellows were given lodging at the city prison Monday night, but all camps were turned away. These fellows were all well dressed and claimed to be looking for work.

The Hotel Nordica has been recently repapered and repainted, and the dining room has been refitted throughout and electric lights have been placed in. The entire ground floor is now lighted with electric lights.

Hugh McCann, the young man who was recently released from a prison in Cuba, where he was taken as a prisoner of war, is visiting in this city. McCann is the guest of his mother, Mrs. Dalton at her home on Ballantine avenue.

Buckeye Commandery, No. 2, U. A. M., has set March 21 as the date for their entertainment. It is to be given in their hall, and is to be composed of both a drama and minstrel, with members of the commandery taking the parts.

The invitations for the Mask and Wig club performance to be given at the Peters home, on south Prospect street, were issued this morning. It is hoped to give the next performance after the present one at the Davis home on east Center street.

The Ancient Order of Hibernians will give their annual banquet on the evening of March 17. It will be remembered that last year the Hibernian banquet was quite an affair. It is to be more exclusive this time, and no outside invitations are to be issued.

U. G. Lawrence and Mr. VanOsten have completed the organization of a hedge and wire fence company at Mansfield, which is chartered, and the organization is to take place the last of this week. The company is composed of the best men in that city and is sure to be a go.

Word was received Monday at the Hotel Marion that A. F. Abbott had arrived in Syracuse all right. It is supposed that he got to drinking again while on his way home and stopped off at some point. The people at the Hotel Marion were pleased to learn of his safe arrival home.

Master George Wright was given a surprise party by fifteen or twenty of his young friends last night at the home of his parents on Bellefontaine avenue, the occasion being George's fourteenth birthday. Games were played, choice refreshments served and a merry time had by the little ones.

The Royal Arcanum committee is still receiving many requests for rooms in the city. Within a month the committee can come very near giving the correct estimate of the representatives of the lodge that will be here, and a list is now being prepared of the visitors that are to come to Marion to the grand council.

Marion Circle, No. 29, Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, held a very interesting meeting Monday afternoon. Several new recruits were mustered in and a jolly good time was enjoyed by the ladies. On next Monday evening a box social will be held at the home of Mrs. Smith, on west Church street.

W. V. Smith, formerly a teacher in Marion county, but now manager of the Central Magazine, published at Cleveland, was in the city today. Mr. Smith is out in the interest of his magazine, which in April begins a series of articles on "The Life and Work of General William H. Gibson," by Dr. Bigger. There can be little doubt of a wonderful interest in these papers.

Wm H. Hoffman, of Pittsburg, who has been engaged by the owners of the opera house to do the mural decorations in their building stated to the Star last night that for out-an-out seekers after information the Marion public could beat the world. He said that he entertained over 200 at the opera house yesterday and that it took so much of his time that he hopes the public may see fit to call upon him at Hotel Marion any time after supper any evening and he will give lessons by the hour on decorative art.

SICK AND CONVALESCENT.

A daughter of Wesley Harsch, who has been quite ill for the past couple of days, is reported some better today.

M. E. Sweeney is able to get back at his desk in the superintendent's office of the Steam Shovel works again, after a few days' lay off on account of illness.

WARRANTS ISSUED

For the Arrest of Suborners for Sunday Violations.

Mayor Nichols took his pen in hand this morning and issued warrants for the arrest of two saloonkeepers. They were both on charges of selling liquor on Sunday, and their cases will probably come up this evening. The warrants were issued for John Seitz, who runs a boarding house and saloon in the west end of the city, and William P. Murphy, who condones a saloon and grocery store on the side of Seitz's place.

The affidavits for the warrants were sworn to by Mrs. Joseph Swartz and she alleges that on last Sunday her husband purchased liquor at both these places and came home intoxicated. She intends to push the matter.

The warrants were given to Marshal Blain to serve and the saloonists will be given a preliminary hearing tonight.

BEFORE THE TUESDAY CLUB

Prof. Knight Will Lecture Next Friday Night, March 12

Mr. Knight, who lectures before the Tuesday club Friday evening, is professor of history and political economy in the Ohio State University. Possessing a singularly clear and comprehensive mind, and a brilliant intellect, the Tuesday club may well feel proud in securing him. He will present the colonial period, not in its historical sense alone, but also those far-reaching experiments that led to local self government and union, that culminated in our present system of government.

A social hour will follow the lecture, when an opportunity will be given to meet Prof. Knight.

Keaton is going to get out of the woods, according to this from the News: "Manager Loose states that Keaton will probably have long distance telephone service before autumn leaves fall. A line will probably be put in this summer. It will be of great advantage to our city."

There is a current rumor that Col. Jim Vaughan will again don the publishing harness. The colonel is an old favorite and the field is not all occupied. Anyhow, the rumor couples the colonel's name with an act of resurrection and rejuvenation, rather than fathering a new birth. But these are given as rumors only.

Sad Death in Pleasant.

Frank Almendinger, the 16-year-old son of Christian Almendinger, of Pleasant township, died at the family home Monday. The funeral will occur at the M. E. church in Prospect at 10 o'clock a. m. Wednesday.

The boy had a siege of lung fever, but had almost recovered and only last week was able to visit Prospect. He suffered a relapse and at once his condition became dangerous. Deceased was the only son of Christian Almendinger.
